DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-18 and 25-43, drawn to an apparatus for movement of a lumbar support, classified in class 297, subclass 284.4.
- II. Claims 19-24, drawn to a method for relieving muscle fatigue, classified in class 128, subclass 898.
- III. Claims 44-55, drawn to a data structure and cyclic pattern, classified in class 700, subclass 56.

2. Inventions I and II are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case the process of use disclosed in Group II could be performed by hand with a materially different product. For example, a physical therapist could inflate and deflate a support bladder with a hand pump to a first degree of curvature, a second degree of curvature and a third degree of curvature at set time intervals to massage a person's neck.

3. Inventions I and III are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination (Group III) as claimed because the "first plurality of binary values ... second plurality of binary values...third plurality of binary values" set forth in claim 52 are not requirement of the "adjustment cycle" set forth in Group I. The subcombination (Group III) has separate utility such as use with an electronic metronome operated by musicians for keeping time with music.

4. Inventions II and III are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case, the process of use disclosed in Group II could be performed by hand with a materially different product. As stated previously, a physical therapist could inflate and deflate a support bladder with a hand pump and would not require the "data structure comprising...an instruction to initialize a memory with a first, second and third position" as set forth in claim 44.

5. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

6. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for Group I is not required for Group II or Group III, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

7. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species within Group I: An Apparatus for Movement of a Lumbar Support:

- Sub-group A: Traction driven lumbar support (specification page 15, lines 21-22)
- Sub-group B: Electric motor driven lumbar support (specification page 6, line 13)
- Sub-group C: Lumbar support in the form of a push paddle (specification page 6, line 21)
- Sub-Group D: Lumbar support in the form of a flexible wire mat (specification page 6, line 21)
- Sub-group E: Controller module with polarity switch (Figure 4)
- Sub-group F: Controller module without polarity switch (Figure 3)

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, no claims appear to be generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

8. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).
9. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

10. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Sarah C. Burnham whose telephone number is 703-308-7315. The examiner can normally be reached on M-Th 7:30 am - 5:00 pm.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Peter Cuomo can be reached on 703-308-0827.
